The Compliance- Heroes of HARTMANN

Code of Conduct
5th edition

HARTMANN –
our Mission, our Values, our Code of Conduct.

HARTMANN is going further for health – compliant behaviour ensures we do it the right way.

Dear Readers,

The HARTMANN GROUP is a leading international supplier of medical and hygiene products. Our employees take a holistic view on healthcare and focus on the direct benefits for patients and professionals. Our aim is to meet the increasing challenges of the healthcare industry and improve the quality of life for as many people as possible. We are proud of this, and even after more than 200 years, are constantly looking for new, innovative solutions and continuous improvement.

Cooperation and a culture of open exchange within the group are the basis for our daily work and success. We are successful when we enjoy the trust of all interest groups, e.g. patients, healthcare professionals, associations, regulatory authorities, journalists and investors. In order to strengthen this trust in the long term, all employees and business partners of the HARTMANN GROUP are committed to the highest standards of integrity and ethics.

Due to the diversity of our products and the global orientation of the HARTMANN GROUP, it is necessary to consider the international requirements for the group as a whole and for each country organization as well. In addition to the legal requirements, ethical principles and our social responsibility as a company are crucial.

These central ideas are part of our Code of Conduct. It reflects what the HARTMANN GROUP expects from you as an employee, customer, supplier or business partner, while at the same time outlining our mission, values and obligations. It defines how these are to be applied in practice and provides important guidance.

If you have any questions about compliance – even if they may seem trivial – you should seek advice and help. You can contact your supervisor or your Local Compliance Officer at any time. You will also find further contact persons in our Code of Conduct.

Our daily actions at the HARTMANN GROUP should always be in accordance with the requirements of the Code of Conduct.

Collectively, we will build upon your and our compliant behavior – to ensure we do it the right way.

Social Responsibility and Patient Satisfaction

Our concern for the common good is reflected in how we act as socially and ethically responsible individuals. We aim to support community and other programs that are committed to protect the environment, welfare and the social stability of our community and the countries in which we operate.

As a manufacturer and distributor of medical devices, related solutions and services, we contribute towards improving the health and satisfaction of patients. We dedicate ourselves to safe and high quality products.

We are committed to full transparency, integrity and ethical conduct in our relations with patients, members of the health professions and public authorities. Our actions are based on local, national and international laws in each HARTMANN GROUP country, especially on the following laws and documents:

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations (UN)
- International Labour Organisation (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work
- Fundamental Conventions by ILO (i.e. "Core Conventions")
- The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child

Following the principles above, we apply the guidance from the UN Global Compact and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.

We believe in our products and services and pride ourselves in proper conduct within the medical and scientific community.

RESPONSIBLE

Going further for health is at the core of the HARTMANN identity and is the symbol for our day-by-day motivation and believe that our products empower and support people in enjoying the highest quality of life possible. This purpose accompanies value creation for our society and a responsible use of resources based on extended life-cycle thinking. A discrete consumer service and our ambition to achieve sustainable growth and fair profit is part of our culture and identity.

We strive to acknowledge the impact of our actions in the world and commit to change these for the better. We have done much in the past to reduce waste and pollution and we are dedicated to do so in the future; for our business, the environment and for the people today and tomorrow.

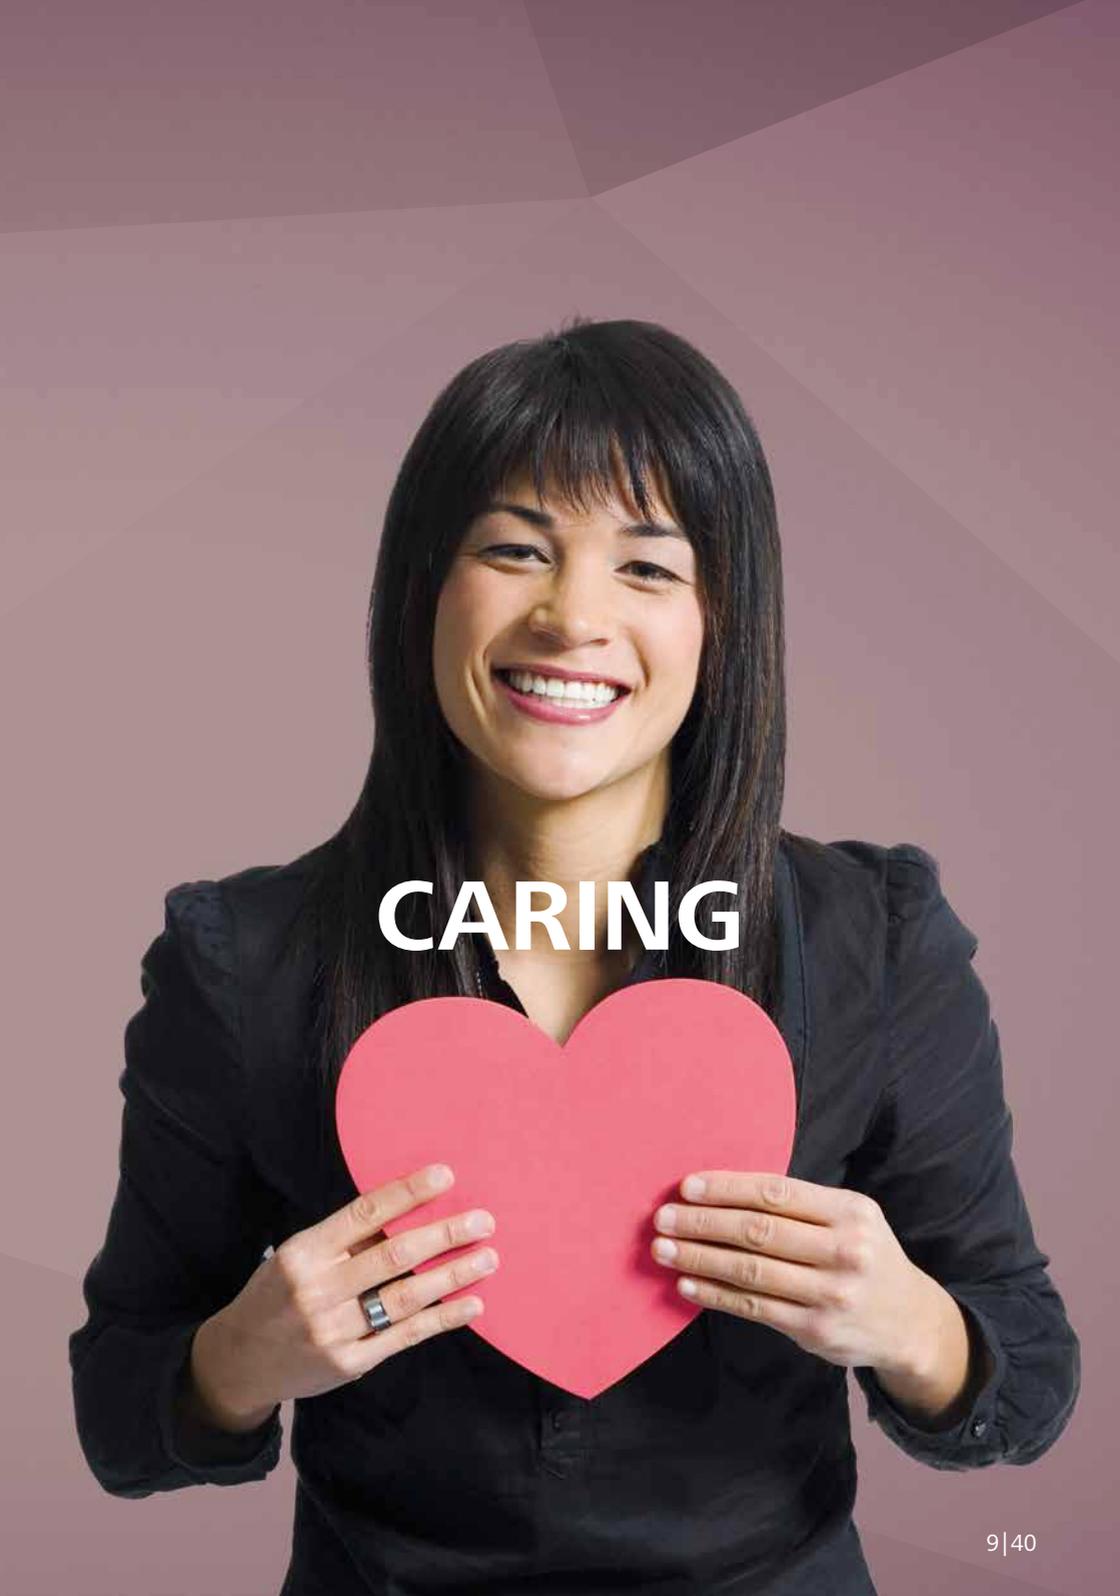

Relationship with our Employees

As a global business the staff at HARTMANN observe and comply with the relevant employment laws in each jurisdiction in which we operate. The work, ingenuity, commitment and entrepreneurship of our employees are amongst our greatest assets.

Our employees are the driving force behind our high quality products, patient satisfaction and our overall corporate vision.

The essential basis for successful and productive work is a good working environment. The way in which we deal with each other as colleagues and fellow employees is reflected within our company culture. We will maintain a secure work environment and strengthen the skills and expertise of our employees, in order to achieve best possible performance for the benefit of all our stakeholders.

We respect our employees' rights, individuality and differences, promote diversity in the workplace and provide a safe and rewarding work environment. This means that we will not tolerate harassment or discrimination under any circumstances and fully support equal opportunities and fair pay.

CARING

COMPLIANT

04

Compliance with Medical Device Laws and Other Regulations

As a manufacturer of medical devices and pharmaceutical products (amongst others) we are subject to many national and international rules and regulations designed to protect patients, consumers and professional users.

We strive to constantly improve the quality of our products and related healthcare services. Our products are designed and manufactured to fully comply with our Quality Management System and meet the necessary official standards of the markets we serve.

In order to maintain the best possible safety standards of our products and in order to fulfil the regulatory requirements, we always ensure we meet all regulatory obligations and promptly take action should adverse events occur.

Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and Ethical Standards

We will conduct our business in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations and in accordance with highest ethical standards possible.

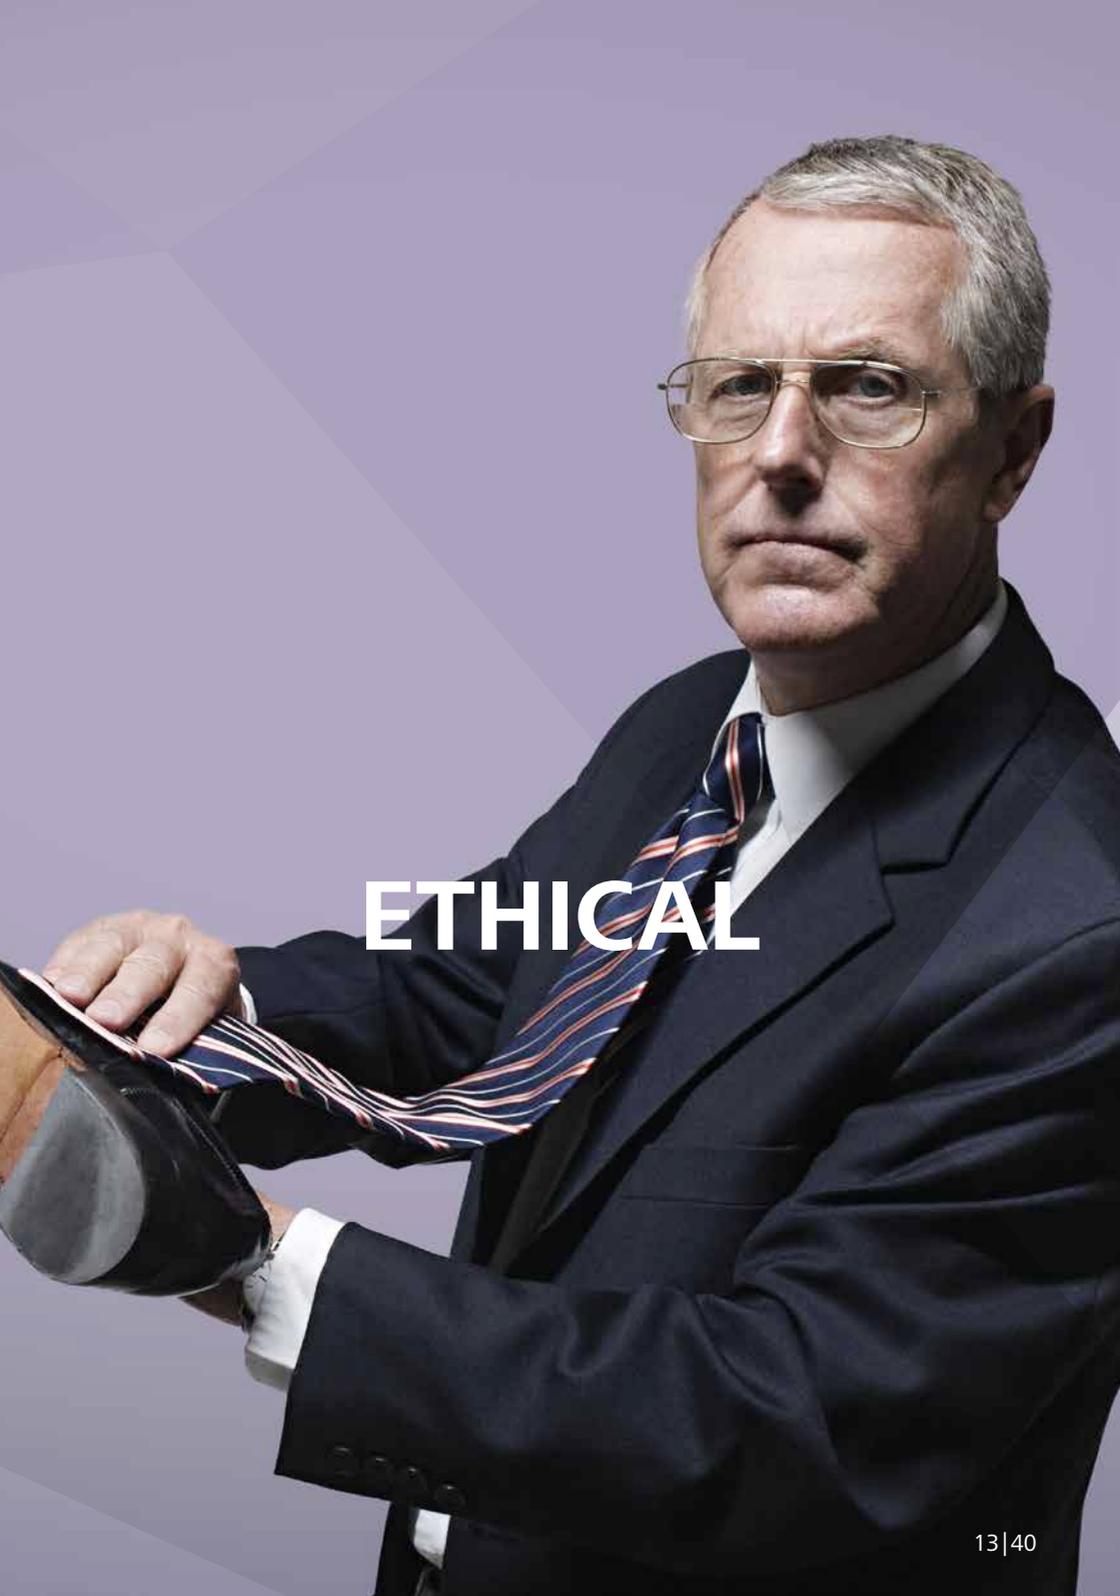

We require strict compliance with all legal requirements, banning corruption and illicit payments of any kind. Any behaviour that could be interpreted as corruption, such as bribes, fraud, overpayments, or misuse of financing or other payments to public administrations will not be tolerated.

The majority of countries in which we operate have laws that forbid making, offering or promising any payment or anything of value (directly or indirectly) to a public official respectively healthcare professionals when the payment is intended to influence an official act or decision to award or retain business. We are subject to the anti-bribery and anti-corruption provisions of numerous legal provisions, such as the German Criminal Code, UK Bribery Act and other laws and regulations, which might apply domestically and abroad.

These provisions are principally designed to prevent and sanction acts of corruption, i.a. of healthcare professionals or public officials. Therefore, all employees of the HARTMANN GROUP may offer gratuities and gifts to public officials respectively healthcare professionals, only in accordance with the defined HARTMANN rules and guidelines for cooperations with healthcare professionals and public officials.

The law also prohibits using intermediaries (for example, foreign affiliates, distributors, agents and consultants) for bribery or corruption.

ETHICAL

PROFESSIONAL

Relationships with Healthcare Professionals

To ensure high quality products and services, a close cooperation with healthcare professionals is essential. We at HARTMANN build and maintain professional and objective relationships with healthcare professionals. We ensure professional integrity and objectivity in any relationship with our stakeholders and business partners.

As a company producing and distributing medical devices and related services, we are subject to laws and regulations that prohibit providing undue advantages to individuals (clinical or non-clinical, including but not limited to, physicians, nurses, technicians and research coordinators) or entities (such as hospitals or group purchasing bodies) that directly or indirectly purchase, lease, recommend, use and arrange for the purchase or lease of, or prescribe our medical devices ("Healthcare Professionals"). Our policy is to fully comply with all such laws and regulations.

We strictly adhere to the relevant industry codes of conduct, for example the MedTech Europe Code of Ethical Business Practice, the BVMed Code Medical Devices (Kodex Medizinprodukte) and any other relevant code of ethical conduct, published by the respective local association, providing they do not contradict the aforementioned provisions. The law, or as the case may be the code, with the more stringent requirements shall apply. Relationships with healthcare professionals must be based upon the principles of separation, transparency, equivalence and documentation.

All interactions with healthcare professionals must have a clear medical, scientific or professional related purpose and any payments must strictly follow a fair market value analysis in order to avoid already a perception of corruption.

Compliance with Anti-Trust and Competition Laws

We believe in free competition and we respect that the proper functioning of the economy is based on fair and loyal exchange within the framework of open competition. We must ensure that we fully comply with the applicable competition laws. These laws are complex and difficult to be summarised in this context. At their very essence they prohibit agreements with competitors on prices, terms and conditions of business or other factors affecting competition.

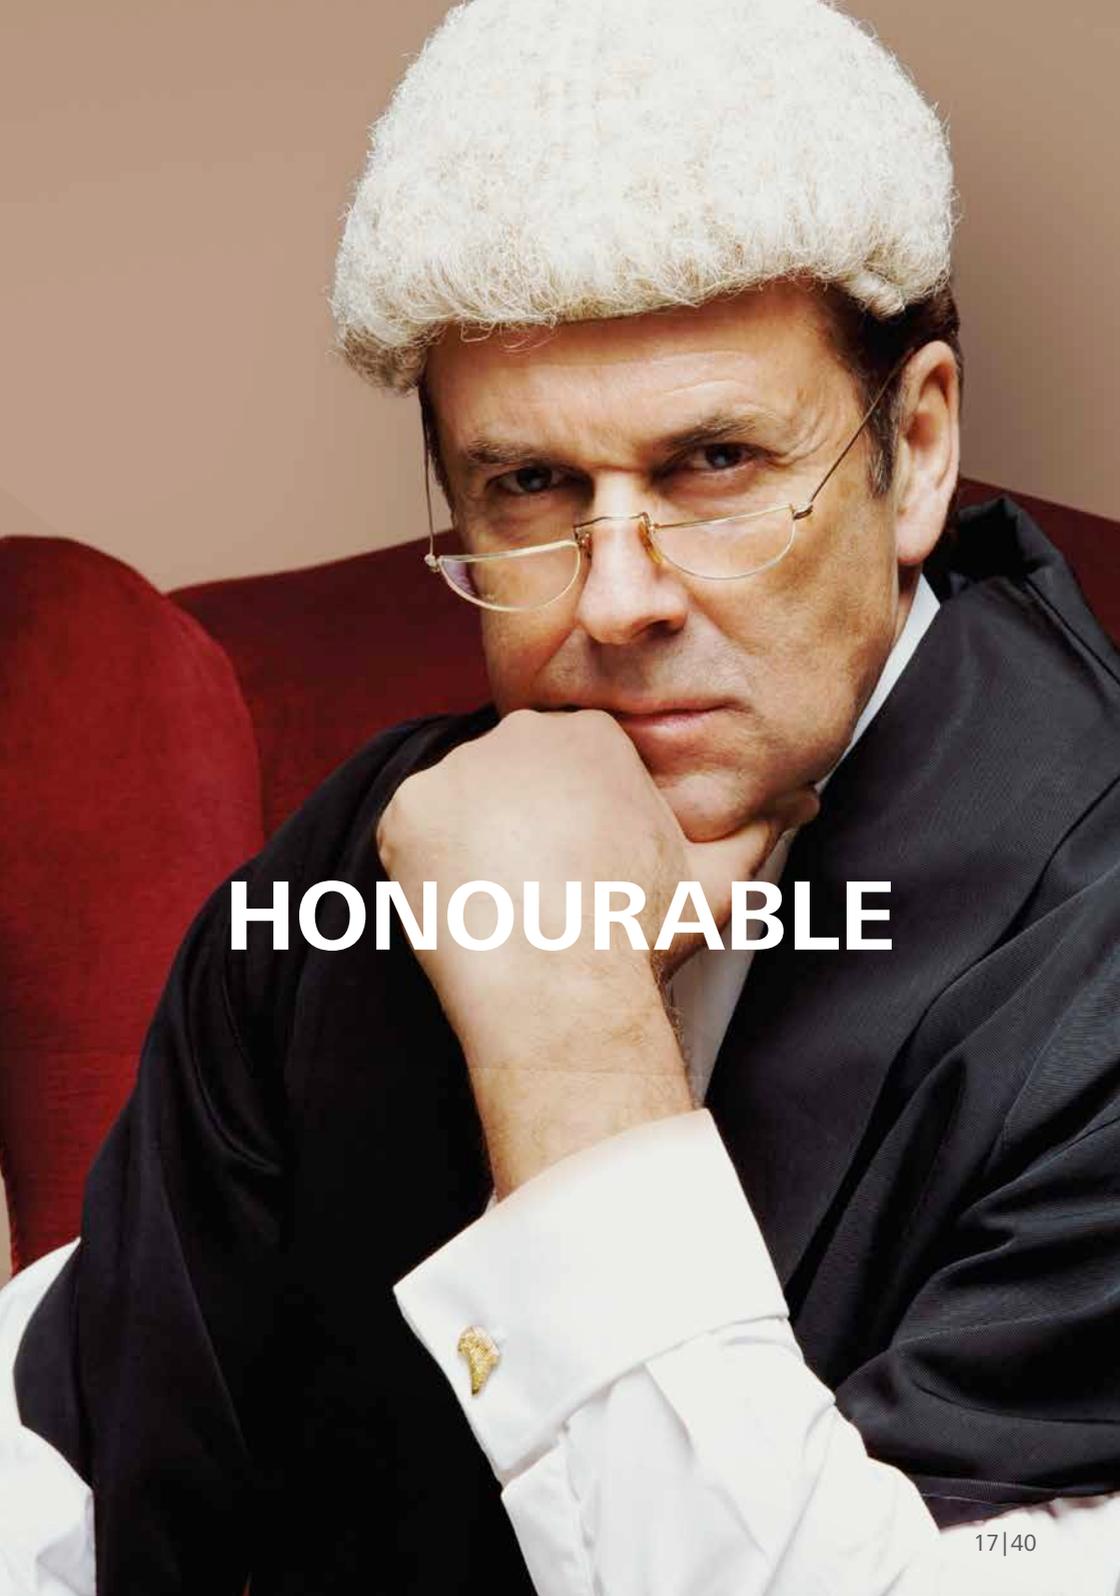

We must be aware of these laws and their implications, including how they apply in the country in which we operate.

We prohibit:

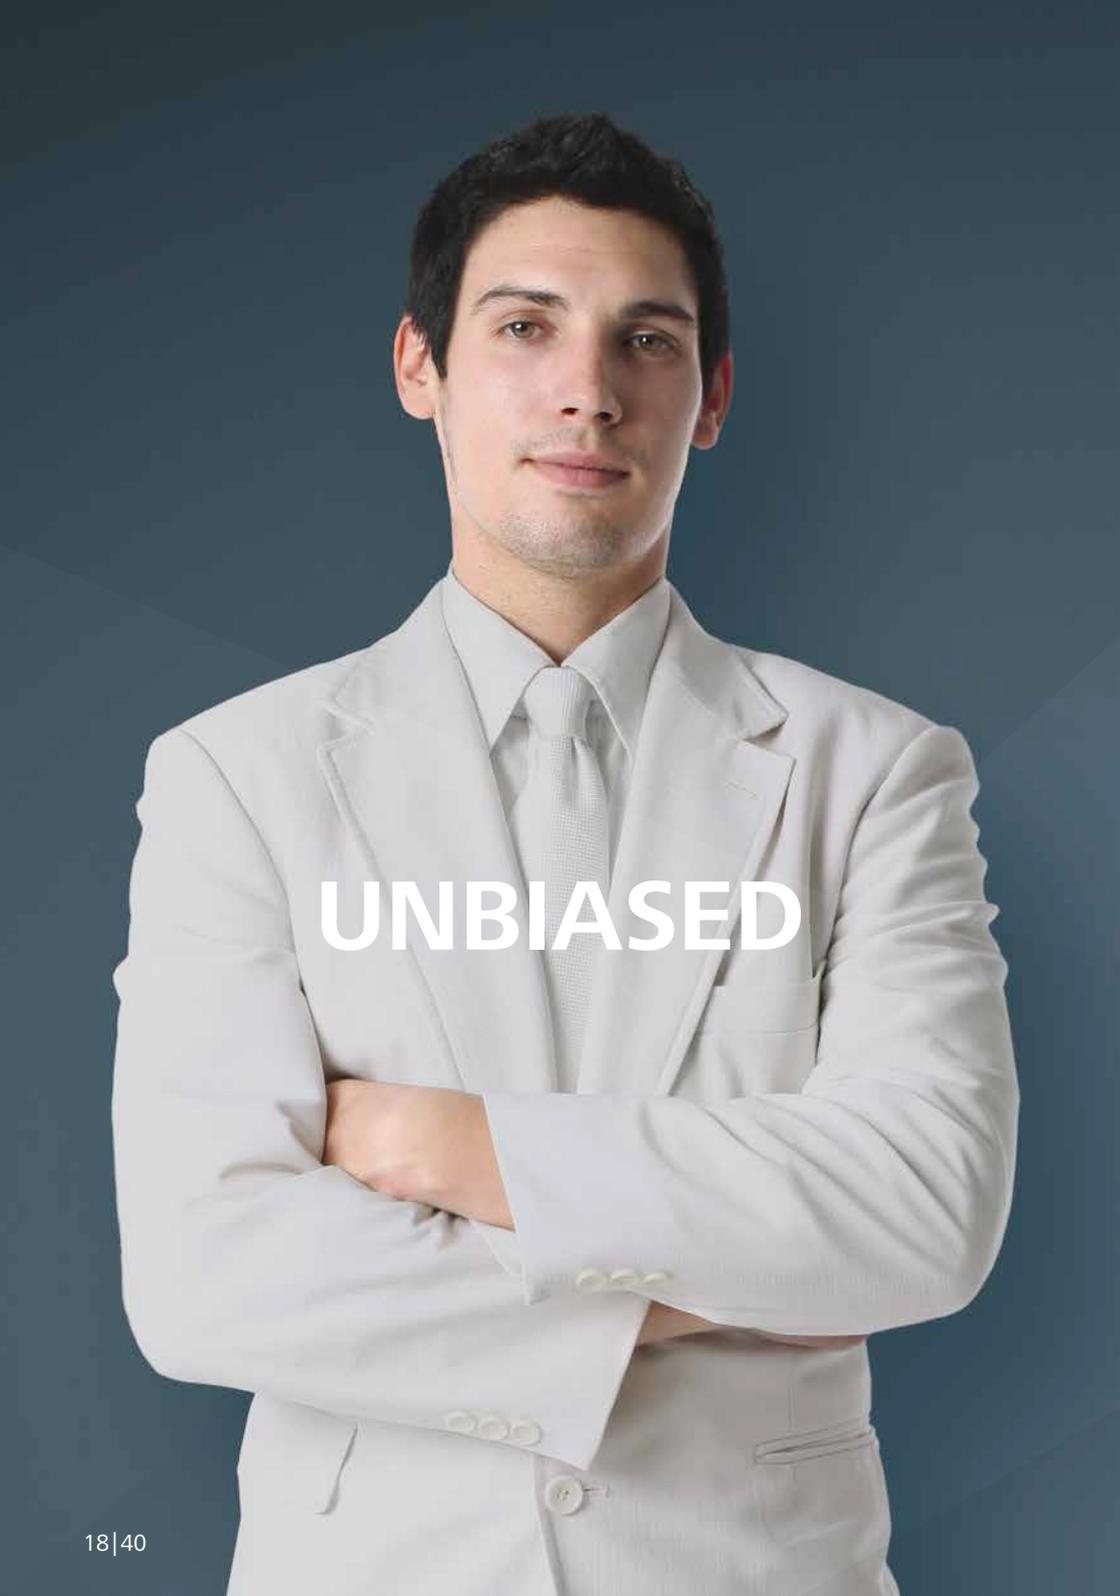

- Discussions or contacts with competitors about pricing, costs, or terms or conditions of sale.
- Discussions or contacts with suppliers and customers that unfairly restrict trade or exclude competitors from the marketplace.
- Agreements with competitors regarding allocating markets or customers.
- Agreements with others to boycott customers or suppliers.

Anti-competitive practices may lead to fines, civil liability for damages, exclusion from public contracts or criminal liability. These measures may significantly damage the company.

We are also subject to a number of particular medical device related advertising restrictions. It is our commitment to market and sell our products in accordance with the limitations on promotion of our products.

HONOURABLE

UNBIASED

Political Parties

Political decisions affect HARTMANN and its business in many different ways. As a responsible member of society, the team at HARTMANN considers it as a duty and a right to participate in the political process and to explain our positions and perspectives. We do this by engaging in the work of industry trade associations.

We encourage our colleagues to participate in electoral politics. However, such activity must occur strictly on an individual or within a private capacity and not on behalf of the company. Colleagues may not conduct personal political activity on company time or use company property or equipment for this purpose.

Scientific Integrity

The development, validation and manufacturing of medical devices is highly dependent on clinical evaluation and studies.

We are committed to ensure that all study proposals are ethically and scientifically reviewed in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, as well as with applicable industry codes. We will strictly adhere to scientific methods and engineering principles. Our studies are designed and conducted without bias. For example, by suppressing, fabricating or falsifying data.

However, many potential conflicts of interest can be resolved in a simple and mutually acceptable way.

Therefore, any potential conflict of interest must be disclosed and approved. Conflicts of interest may, for example, arise if an employee or a close person:

We expect every employee to support the establishment, protection, maintenance and defence of intellectual property rights of the HARTMANN GROUP in the best possible and responsible way.

We exercise the same care and attention in protecting the intellectual property of HARTMANN, as we do in respecting the corresponding rights of third parties. Unauthorised use, theft, or mis-appropriation of third-party intellectual property may result in significant fines, lawsuits or criminal penalties for the company.

Networking of business processes requires the handling of large amounts of data. In the context of our business activities, customers also entrust us with sensitive data, e.g. health data. The trust of our customers, employees and others is essential for our success and the achievement of our strategic goals, for which reason we extensively protect all data in our business processes.

Each employee should act in accordance with the following principles with regard to data protection:

- Data subjects shall be informed in an appropriate and transparent manner about the processing of their data.

Payments may never be made to an individual other than the contractual counter-party or the representative specified in the contract.

We expect our independent dealers, distributors and agents to comply with the policies set out in this Code of Conduct.

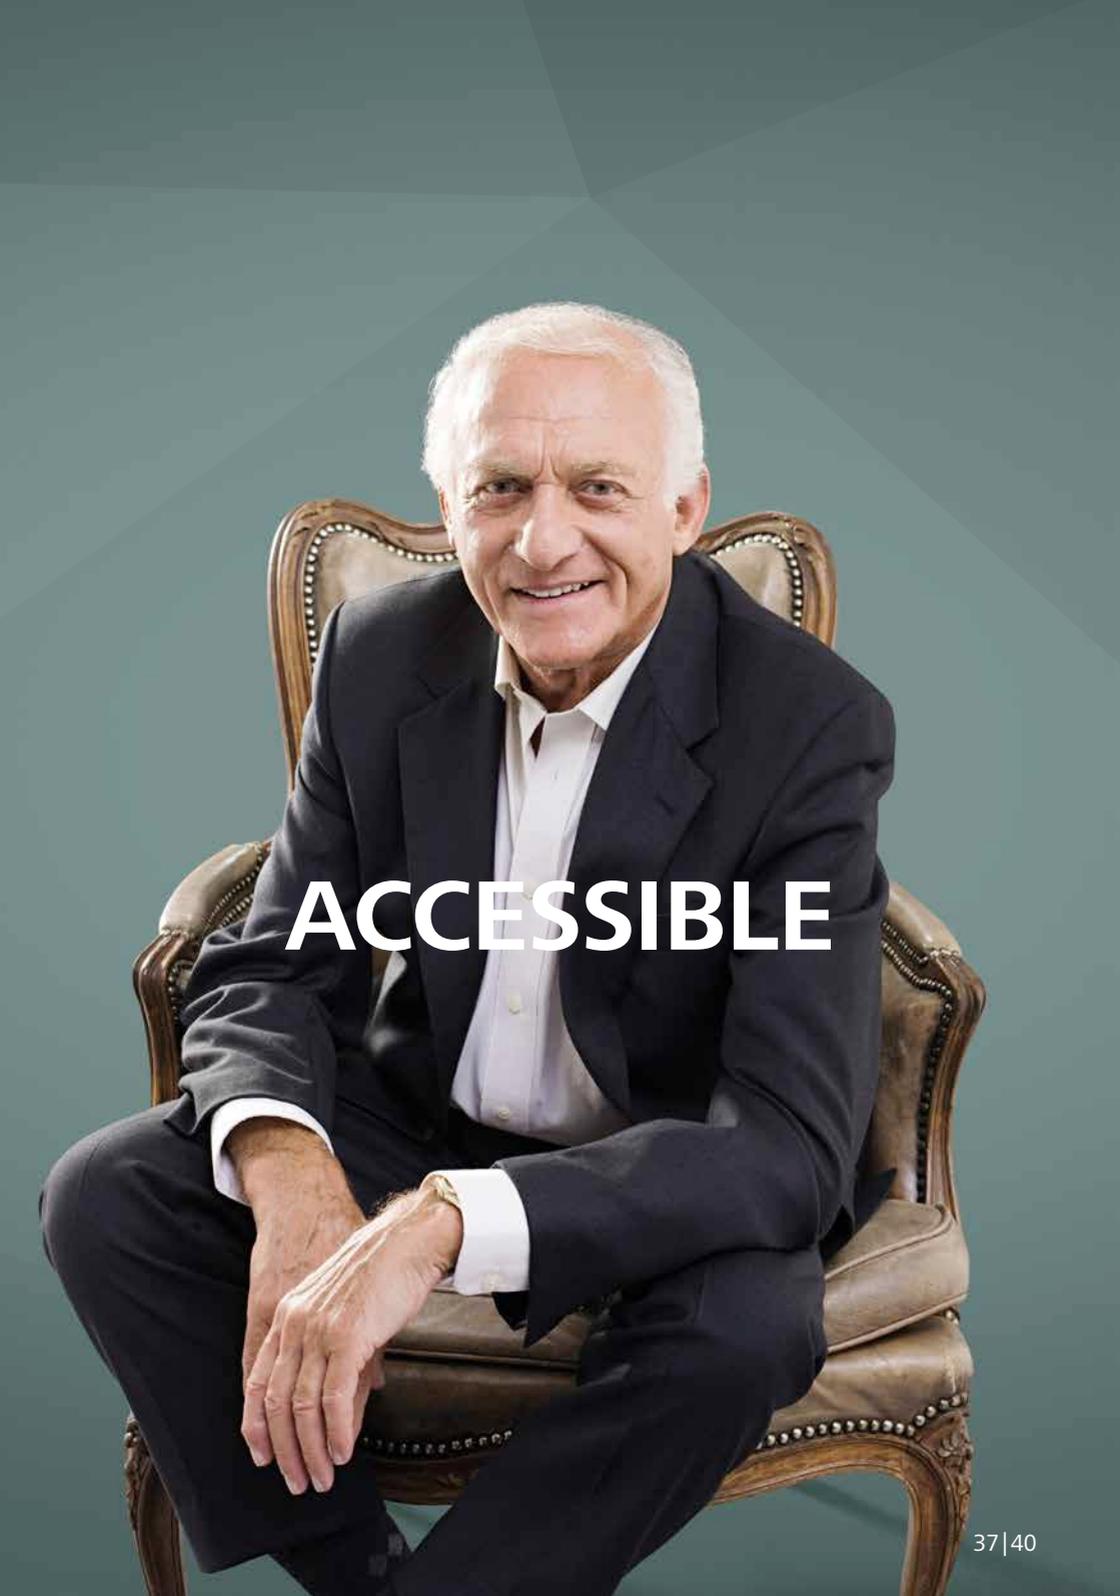

Raising Compliance Concerns

We want to achieve and maintain our standards of ethical conduct, hence it must be incorporated into our business.

Therefore, make the Code of Conduct an integrated part of all decisions which are your responsibility. Use your good judgment and common sense on issues you may encounter. If you are unsure about the appropriate action, you should seek advice, from either your Line Manager or Compliance Officer.

Furthermore, if you believe that someone may be doing something that may violate these basic principles, or the law, you should advise the appropriate person. To not raise your concerns, could lead to you being held liable for another's unlawful actions. Only if you make the issues known to the company, we have the opportunity to prevent harm to employees, the company and those who depend on us.

If you raise an issue, the company can provide you with the necessary assistance. The company provides channels for you to do this without fear of repercussions. Any discrimination against an employee who raises a question or reports a concern in good faith is a serious violation of this Code of Conduct, and will be subject to strong disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
